

Ghost Hampton takes the haunted house story in a new direction – Bridgehampton.

- It's autumn and the quiet town's most resented lawyer is about to turn the Hamptons upside down with a shocking discovery.
- That old Victorian they're about to demolish really was a brothel once, and it really is haunted.
- "Lyle Hall," recovering from a horrific car crash and now in a wheelchair, has seen a ghost.
- "Jewel" seems disturbingly young and pretty. She speaks no English. But she shows Lyle a dire warning: his own daughter's gravestone. "Georgie" has four days to live.
- Jewel definitely wants something from Lyle.
- So do hordes of paranormal wackos who camp out in Lyle's neighborhood, hoping for a glimpse of the ghost girl.
- So does Georgie, a police detective working a perilous case.
- And so does Lyle's new nemesis, "Silk," a scheming TV reporter in stiletto heels.
